Livingston County is excited to announce that your organizations and our residents can access County information and services easier than ever before by visiting Livingston County's redesigned website. The new website has been live for about two months now and is designed to offer easier access to the most used pages and services, as well as a cleaner, simpler layout for visitors to navigate.

- Simplified and organized navigational tabs are featured on the website's header to help residents quickly find the information they are looking for.
- Stay up-to-date with County news by exploring the recently added News Room.
- Links to the County's official social media sites are included in the site's footer and participating Departments, like the Sheriff's Office, Animal Shelter, and Health Department. Residents are encouraged to follow the County for the latest news, events, and announcements.
- Links to the County's official social media sites are included in the site's footer and residents are encouraged to follow these for the latest news, events, and announcements.

The Livingston County Substance Use Disorder Treatment, Prevention, and Recovery Workgroup strives to ensure a coordinated, community-owned substance use disorder continuum of care that is accessible, data-driven, and evidence-based. To collaborate and communicate with agencies, providers, coalitions, courts, police, medical community, schools, and community members.

- Through education and prevention, create awareness in the community about the issues and realities of substance use disorders.
 - Develop a professional community
 - Develop overdose prevention strategies
 - Reduce stigma
- Ensure a comprehensive continuum of care
 - Proven evidence-based models
 - Fill gaps
- Establish a data-driven process that can be used for funding, advocacy, gap-filling, etc.

The workgroup is also in the process of developing a new resource guide. Watch for the release this winter!

Universal caseloads allows a real-time look at services provided. Here is a look at services provided in the month of July 2023 and year-to-date (Mid-March-Present).
